No Regular Meeting this month due to the Holiday Banquet

Board minutes for Saturday November 24th, 2018

1) All members present with the exception of Mike Smith, Ed Smith, Bob Gigante and Bill Zell. Also attending the meeting was Chip Wukitsch, Bruce Johnson, German Martin, Jerry Misko and Miles Young. Florence Shands served refreshments and helped take notes.
2) After the joke of the day, the 1st order of business was a reminder notice to the board that postage rates were going up in January. Cost of 1st class will go up 5 cents to 55 cents. Also decided at this time was to publish the LVNS newsletter in both December and January.
3) A brief report on the success of the November 11 LVNS property auction was given. The 20 lot sale grossed $1,331.00, The proceeds will go directly into the general account.
4) The price of silver guessing game is now closed. Aproxiametly 520 entries were received. Guesses ranged from al low of $7.01 to a high of $80. Most bids were in the $14 to $17 range. Unfortunately several bids had to de disqualified for incomplete or illegible informnation. The winner, based upon the closing price of silver on Friday, December 7th, will be announced at the Holiday banquet on the 8th. The prize will be a very nice 5ounce silver ATB. Good luck to all !
5) Next order of business was a proposed membership drive program for 2019. Joe suggested a contest with rewards. After an intense board debate, the outline was drawn up. Details are published in this newsletter.
6) The outstanding service award voting produced a clear winner which will be znnounced at the Holiday banquet. McMannus auctions donated the silver eagle for the plaque.
7) The LVNSA calendar for 2019 was reviewed. We will have a guest speaker Mr. Doug Daniels at the January 12 meeting. Other dates and activities were discussed.
8) Next was the Holiday banquet. Help is needed with setup and decorations on Friday, December 7th. Call Fred Kuch at 702-497-4858 . Special entertainment is planned along with a valuable raffle, table prizes, presentations and great food. Reservations are still being accepted. Again, call Fred Kuck to sign up. Members cost is only $5 and guest are $ 25
9) Coin show report. The recent show which has moved back to Palace Station was a great success. Comments from both the dealers and the public were very positive. All dealer space was sold out and attendance was up. Enthusiasm is building for the May LVNS show. Talk of holding show committee meetings were discussed. Expanded YN and display space will be available out in the public areas. Walt Ostremecki and other ANA reps will be invited.
10) Reports were next. Treasury and YN accounts have been reconciled. Mr. Jim Rhodes talked about future plans for the YN club including the possibility of sending a YN to the ANA summer seminar in Colorado Springs next year. The corresponding secretary reminded the members that is time to start collecting dues for 2019. New membership cards will be printed up.
11) Next board meeting scheduled for Saturday, December 29th.
12) Meeting adjourned at 5:15pm. Thanks to Florence Shands for serving refreshments.

Thanks and Happy Holidays !
