

Young Numismatist's Monthly Discussion
The "Liberty" Nickel – Part II
The 20th Century

- 1. What is the significance of the 1912 coin(s)?
- 2. Which mint produced most of the coins?
- 3. Why are these coins so hard to find in the higher grades (VF-XF or better)?
- 4. Which single year could be assembled as a type set?
- 5. Should the 1913 coins be considered a "regular" issue?
- 6. Which of the 20th Century coins are the hardest to obtain?
- 7. How many "types" of Liberty nickels are there?
- 8. Which of the late date coins is easiest to obtain in the niciest condition?
- 9. Which of the "regular" issues is the most valuable?
- 10. What year was the least amount of proofs minted?